

“In Secret Service of the Sacred Heart: The Life and Virtues of Julia Greeley”

By Blaine Burkey, O.F.M.Cap.

This long-awaited book is a historical documentary on the life of Denver's own "Angel of Charity." Julia Greeley was a former slave whose devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus still inspires; she poured her life out in service to firemen, poor families, women, and children. The Julia Greeley Guild was established in Denver in 2011 to explore her cause for canonization. All book sales and donations go to help in this effort.
